A serene landscape at sunset. The sun is a bright yellow orb in the upper right, casting a warm glow over a sky of orange and red. Below the sky are several layers of mountains, their peaks softened by atmospheric haze. In the foreground, a dark, silhouetted forest of evergreen trees sits on a hillside. A calm lake in the lower half of the image perfectly reflects the colors of the sunset and the dark shapes of the trees and mountains.

Several birds are seen flying in the distance against the bright light of the sun or moon. The overall atmosphere is one of peace and spiritual contemplation.
